WORKFORCE SOLUTIONS BORDERPLEX RELEASES 2019 ANNUAL REPORT

El Paso, Texas – January 13, 2020 – Workforce Solutions Borderplex (WSB) proudly presents its 2019 Annual Report. The report culminates as WSB completed a year-long celebration of 20 years of service to the Borderplex region. The report highlights the strategic efforts conducted by the local workforce board, administration, and its service delivery contractors.

Some successes, as noted in the 2019 Annual Report include:

- WSB served 19,522 jobseekers.
- A total aggregated economic impact value of $232,975,748, stemming from ALL of WSB programs.
- 4,054 businesses received free services that assisted in retaining employees, hosting job fairs and subsidizing employment and training for various trades and populations.
- $722,605 in new grant opportunities that allowed for the expansion of training outreach beyond scope of formula funding.

“As I wrap up my tenure as CEO in the next month, I do so with tremendous pride at our many accomplishments and the important work we have done for jobseekers and businesses in search of talent to grow their enterprises,” CEO Joyce Wilson said. “We embrace 2020 with the theme of New Horizons as the organization evolves in new leadership, programming and community partnerships.”
